FULL DAY SOUTH GOA TOUR BY AC BUS

Price: 2500 (Per Person)
Time: 09:00 am - 07:30 pm

• Miramar Beach
• Basilica of Bom Jesus Church
• St. Chathral Church
• St. Agustine Tower
• Mangeshi Temple
• Balaji Temple
• Sunset Cruise (Pay on the spot)

Inclusions
✓ Pick up and drop from North Goa hotel main road
✓ Comfortable seating in an A/C bus
✓ Hindi- Guide speaking guide (Goa darshan)
✓ Fuel charges
✓ Parking charges as per itinerary

Exclusions
× Rs.500/- for Boat cruise ticket
× Rs.350/- for Dolphin trip
× Children above the age of 3 years would be charged full fare
× Food & beverages

Note: Short cloths not allowed in Church & Temples
*The cumulative distance for the entire journey is approximately 64 kilometers.
ONE DAY NORTH GOA TOUR
BY AC BUS

Price:  2500 Per Person
Time: 09:00 am - 05:30 pm

• Fort Aguada
• Sinquerim Beach
• Sinquerim Fort
• Baga Beach
• Snow Park (pay on the spot)
• Anjuna
• Vagator

Inclusions
✓ Pick up and drop from North Goa hotel main road
✓ Comfortable seating in an A/C bus
✓ Hindi- Guide speaking guide (Goa darshan)
✓ Fuel charges
✓ Parking charges as per itinerary

Exclusions
× Rs.500/- for Boat cruise ticket
× Rs.350/- for Dolphin trip
× Children above the age of 3 years would be charged full fare
× Food & beverages

Note: Short cloths not allowed in Church & Temples
*The cumulative distance for the entire journey is approximately 69 kilometers.
SOUTH GOA SIGHTSEEING DAY TRIP

Price: Rs. 5000/- (Private Car - Wagonr / Swift Dezire)
Price: Rs. 5500/- (Private Car - Ertiga)
Timing: From 09:30 am to 5:30 pm.
Location: South Goa

Includes:
- Basilica of bom jesus
- St. Catherine Church
- St. Augustine’s Tower
- Mangueshi Temple

Guided Tour at Spice Plantation
Goan Style Buffet Lunch at Spice Plantation (optional - pay on-the-spot)- Miramar Beach

Sunset River Cruise (optional - pay-on-the-spot )
Note: Pick up & Drop will be provided from hotels booked only in North Goa places like Calangute, Baga, Arpora, Nagoa, Candolim, Sinquerim, Nerul, Nagoa Area.

Note: If the vehicle is unable to reach at your hotel due to narrow road or due to any construction work, you will be picked up from the nearest location.
*The cumulative distance for the entire journey is approximately 42 kilometers.
NORTH GOA FULL SIGHTSEEING TOUR

Price: Rs. 5200/- (Private Car - Wagonr / swift dezire)
Price: Rs. 5800/- (Private Car - Ertiga)
Pick up: From North Goa hotels
Pick up Time: 9:30am
Duration: 9:30 am - 5:00 pm
Location: North Goa

Included: Pick up from your Location
- Visit to Aguada Fort and Light House
- Optional - Dolphin Boat Ride at Sinquerim Beach (not available in monsoon season)* - Candolim Beach
- Baga Beach
- Anjuna Beach
- Vagator Beach
- Chapora Fort
- Drop back to your Location

Excludes:
- Breakfast
- Beverages
- Lunch (Vehicle will halt at any good restaurant or kindly suggest your choice of restaurant to the driver)
- Any kind of Entry Fees

Note: Transport required in areas other then mentioned above will be charged extra.
*The cumulative distance for the entire journey is approximately 65 kilometers.
North Goa serves as the vibrant tourism epicentre of Goa, boasting an array of captivating experiences. Here, you’ll encounter glistening golden beaches, formidable forts, bustling flea markets, inviting shacks, lively nightlife, and awe-inspiring holy shrines. The region’s allure extends to its diverse landscape, featuring rocky and sandy shores, secluded hillocks, and an alluring Bohemian atmosphere that continually draws in travellers.

A one-day North Goa local sightseeing tour promises to immerse you in the world-renowned beaches and much more. Activities in North Goa are as diverse as the landscape itself, offering options like kayaking, dolphin spotting, banana boat rides, snorkelling, scuba diving, hiking, and spiritual exploration.

Calangute Beach, often dubbed the “Queen of Beaches,” stands as North Goa’s crown jewel, offering an ideal setting for swimming, sunbathing, and various beachside activities. Meanwhile, Baga Beach is another popular hotspot, home to a plethora of bars, restaurants, and eateries that cater to tourists’ tastes.

For a relaxed and stress-relieving one-day North Goa local sightseeing tour, consider hiring a private cab to ensure you make the most of your visit. If you find yourself with just one day to explore North Goa, here are some must-visit places:
FORT AGUADA:
This 17th-century Portuguese fort showcases stunning Italian and Portuguese military architecture. Located strategically at the mouth of the Mandovi River, it boasts Asia’s largest water reservoir and offers splendid sea views, including an ancient lighthouse and prison cells. A freshwater spring adds to its charm.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Fort Aguada – Bits Pilani is 72 KMS

CALANGUTE BEACH:
Known as the "Queen of the Beaches in Goa," Calangute offers not only a picturesque shoreline but also a range of water sports like parasailing, snorkelling, and windsurfing. Stretching from Candolim to Baga, it’s the longest beach in North Goa and features a lively street market and plenty of food kiosks.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Calangute Beach – Bits Pilani is 78 KMS
ALEX CHURCH:
This pristine white church in Curtorim is one of Goa’s oldest, with a unique ‘Cupola Falsa’ architectural style. Surrounded by palm trees and near Angoddi Tollem, one of Curtorim’s pristine lakes, it exudes a peaceful ambience. Witness the floating crib in the lake during Christmas Eve.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Alex Church – Bits Pilani is 54 KMS

BAGA BEACH:
While known for its vibrant nightlife, Baga Beach also offers an exciting day experience. It’s well-organized with ample parking and various water sports like parasailing, scuba diving, and more. You’ll also find attractions like an indoor snow park, tattoo parlours, and relaxing shacks.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Baga Beach – Bits Pilani is 80 KMS
VAGATOR BEACH:

Similar to Baga Beach, Vagator is a hub for late-night parties and celebrations. During the day, it provides a thrilling experience with water sports and attractions such as an indoor snow park, tattoo parlours, and sun decks. These destinations promise an unforgettable day in North Goa, showcasing its rich history, natural beauty, and vibrant culture. Enjoy your one-day adventure!

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Vagator Beach – Bits Pilani is 89 KMS

CHAPORA FORT:

Dating back to 1717, Chapora Fort, originally built by the Portuguese, gained fame as the 'Dil Chahta Hai Fort' after its appearance in the Bollywood blockbuster. A brief, albeit steep, 10-minute climb leads you to the ancient fort’s evocative ruins, where you can relish sweeping vistas of the surrounding landscape. This historical gem is a must-visit destination during your one-day private car sightseeing tour.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Chapora Fort – Bits Pilani is 89 KMS
ANJUNA BEACH:
Extending over nearly 2 kilometres, Anjuna Beach is renowned for its vibrant and spirited nightlife scene. This beach is adorned with charming beach shacks, distinctive black rocks, and inviting stretches of white sand. Every Wednesday, a bustling flea market opens its doors to tourists, offering a diverse range of goods. As the sun begins its descent, you can savour a leisurely evening on the rocky shores of Anjuna Beach, providing a romantic setting for couples and honeymooners. Take a tranquil stroll on the pristine white sands while gazing at the swaying palm trees. For those seeking adventure, the beach offers thrilling activities like banana boat rides.

Note: The overall distance from the BITS Pilani – Anjuna Beach – BITS Pilani is 90 KMS
The Bom Jesus Basilica stands as a revered Roman Catholic Church, ranking among the foremost pilgrimage sites in Goa. Recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, it draws pilgrims and tourists from across the globe. As one of the oldest churches erected during the Portuguese colonial era, it boasts magnificent architectural marvels. Inside, you’ll encounter an extensive collection of artistic treasures, featuring colonial Indian art of the highest calibre, delicate Latin crosses adorning the central roof, and breathtaking paintings gracing the pillars, ceilings, and walls. The Basilica also boasts stucco embellishments, precious silver and gold artefacts, intricately carved wooden floral decorations, gilded columns, and a distinctive unplastered façade. Don’t miss the opportunity to explore the modern art gallery housed within the Basilica.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – BOM Jesus Basilica – Bits Pilani is 50 KMS
The Reis Magos Fort, a meticulously restored 16th-century Portuguese fortress located in Panjim, stands as one of Goa’s oldest forts with a rich history serving as a defence bastion, a prison, and even a hospital. Today, it plays a pivotal role in promoting the state’s vibrant cultural heritage, hosting exhibitions, fairs, festivals, and educational events. A brisk, five-minute climb leads to this elegant fort, offering majestic vistas of the Mandovi River, Aguada Fort, the Arabian Sea, and the stunning surrounding landscapes. While visiting, take time to explore the small art gallery and marvel at the fort’s strategic construction. The fort’s serene atmosphere and the absence of crowds allow you to relish peaceful views.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – REIS Magos Fort – Bits Pilani is 65 KMS
AGUADA FORT:

Perched above the Arabian Sea, the well-preserved Aguada Fort, a 16th-century Portuguese stronghold situated on Sinquerim Beach, enjoys ASI protection and holds national significance as one of the finest heritage sites in Goa. The presence of a lighthouse complements the Portuguese heritage and architectural splendour, providing panoramic vistas of the surrounding landscapes. Historically, it served as a navigational landmark for ships arriving from Europe, and it also functioned as a vital watering station and a detention centre for freedom fighters. Today, it offers an exceptional viewpoint for witnessing captivating sunrises and sunsets with your loved ones. Additionally, the fort houses a luxurious resort and spa, enhancing its allure.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Aguada Fort – Bits Pilani is 80 KMS
CABO DE RAMA FORT:

Although largely in ruins, the Cabo de Rama Fort is a medieval hilltop nestled between the stunning Agonda and Cavelossim beaches. With its roots tied to Lord Rama, it was once known as Cape Rama, offering an intriguing blend of Hindu and Portuguese architectural influences. In addition to exploring the fort's remnants, you can visit the white church located on the premises, still used during annual feasts. Overlooking the mesmerizing Arabian Sea, it provides breathtaking views of both sunrise and sunset, making it an ideal photography spot. A brief visit allows you to wander around the fort and appreciate its tranquil charm.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – CABO De Rama Fort – Bits Pilani is 98 KMS
DUDHSAWAR WATERFALLS:
Soaring to an impressive height of 310 meters, Dudhsagar Waterfalls ranks as one of the tallest in the country, resembling a cascading rush of milk flowing down the hills. Nestled within the Bhagwan Mahavir Wildlife Sanctuary, this four-tiered natural wonder entices with its beauty. Embark on a thrilling jeep safari through the sanctuary and discover a lush green pool at the waterfall’s base. The monsoon season presents the ideal time to visit, as the waterfall comes alive in all its glory, surrounded by lush greenery. For a closer encounter with its breathtaking splendour, consider trekking from Castle Rock, immersing yourself in the serenity of the surrounding wilderness.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Dudhsagar – Bits Pilani is 78 KMS

TEREKHOL FORT:
Terekhol Fort, also known as Tiracol Fort, is a majestic structure in North Goa. It was once a strong Portuguese maritime defence and stands across the Terekhol River from Quarim Beach. The fort was built in the 18th century under Portuguese rule and houses a 100-year-old parish church that is open to the public on special occasions. From the cliff, you can enjoy panoramic views of the surroundings. The fort has now been refurbished into a heritage hotel with modern amenities and amazing hospitality. Guests can enjoy activities like dolphin watching and heritage walks.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Terekhol – Bits Pilani is 150 KMS
CHURCH OF ST. CAJETAN:
The Church of St. Cajetan, also known as the Church of Divine Providence, is a rare and unique gem of Goa. It is a part of the World Heritage Site and is listed among the convents and churches of Goa. The 300-year-old building is still well-preserved and is built of laterite stones and plastered with lime. It features baroque elements in the gilded altars, mosaic decorations in the interiors, and an old well. The church is also home to scenes of St. Cajetan carved on the canvas of the altars and six angelic figurines on the twisted shafts.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Church of St. Cajetan – Bits Pilani is 50 KMS

CHURCH OF ST FRANCIS OF ASSISI:
Built by the Portuguese in 1661, the Church of St Francis of Assisi is a Roman Catholic church. It is known for its stunning carvings on the walls and pillars and its architectural wonders. The church also houses an archaeological museum that exhibits paintings, artefacts, sculptures, and pieces from the history and culture of Goa. The church features a Mauline-styled main gate and Tuscan-style exteriors. It also houses a few relics of Hindu temples and a baroque-infused main altar with Corinthian features.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Church of St. Francis of Assisi – Bits Pilani is 51 KMS
SE CATHEDRAL:
Se Cathedral is located in Old Goa and is a part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site. It is one of the largest cathedrals in Asia and one of the oldest and most celebrated religious buildings in Goa. The cathedral was built in the 16th century and features mosaic work, the Golden Bell, and Portuguese-Mauline architectural styles. The highly ornate main altar carries rich carvings of major scenes from the life of St. Catherine. The adjoining convent is now transformed into an archaeological museum.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Se Cathedral – Bits Pilani is 50 KMS

COLVA BEACH:
Colva Beach is a popular tourist spot in Goa and is known for its expansive beachfront, powdery white sand, and swaying coconut trees. The beach has open-air eateries, bars, and nightclubs overlooking the sea. You can also find ancient ruins of Portuguese houses and villas, small shacks, and shops. In addition to sunbathing and swimming, you can also enjoy water sports such as paragliding, jet skiing, snorkelling, and banana boat rides. The beach is also a popular spot for sunset watching and photography.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Colva Beach – Bits Pilani is 36 KMS
DONA PAULA BEACH:
Dona Paula Beach is one of the most happening beaches in Goa and is located at the confluence of the Mandovi and Zuari Rivers. The beach is known for its stunning views of the Mormugao harbour and is often referred to as a "lover’s paradise" due to a popular legend. In the evening, you can enjoy the sea breeze and sunset while taking a stroll or relaxing on. The benches. You can also go for a swim or try out water sports such as kayaking, yachting, and windsurfing.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Dona Paula Beach – Bits Pilani is 56 KMS

BENaulim BEACH:
Benaulim Beach is a beautiful and evergreen beach in Goa. It is known for its cleanliness and is a great place to relax and enjoy the outdoors. You can take a leisurely walk on the long stretches of soft and silvery sands. You can watch the fishermen go about their daily work. You can spot dolphins or enjoy the scenic beauty of the surroundings. You can savour delicious seafood from the beach shacks. You can cherish the sunset over the west coast of India.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Benaulim – Bits Pilani is 41 KMS
SINQUERIM BEACH:
Sinquerim Beach is one of the oldest and best-preserved beaches in Goa. It is a popular tourist destination and is known for its golden sands, palm-fringed boulevards, and the sun and the surf. You can try thrilling water sports like scuba diving, snorkelling, windsurfing, parasailing, fishing, and water skiing. You can swim and take a boat ride, crocodile dundee and dolphin trips. Sunburn Music Festival, the largest in Asia, is organized here every year.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Sinquerim beach – Bits Pilani is 75 KMS

ARAMBOL BEACH:
Arambol Beach is one of the most beautiful and tranquil beaches in Goa. It is known for its rocky and sandy shores and the bohemian vibe that attracts visitors from all over the world. There is something for everyone in Arambol, whether it is yoga classes on the beach, drum circles, a weekend seaside market, a mysterious baba on top of a hilltop, or paragliding.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Arambol beach – Bits Pilani is 126 KMS
BUTTERFLY BEACH:
Butterfly Beach is a hidden gem located in the Canacona district of Goa. It is a small cove surrounded by tall vegetation and is a popular spot for couples. The only way to get to Butterfly Beach is by land, and the journey requires a strenuous trek through the forest. The beach is named after the butterflies that are attracted to the trees in the area.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Butterfly Beach – Bits Pilani is 110 KMS

AGONDA BEACH:
Agonda Beach is a beautiful beach located in North Goa. It is known for its majestic Fort Aguada and the variety of water sports and adventure activities that it offers. You can walk along the beach and take in the stunning views of the fort. You can also go swimming, sunbathing, water skiing, parasailing, and more. There are many restaurants and shops on the beach where you can enjoy delicious food and drinks.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Agonda Beach – Bits Pilani is 115 KMS
MOBOR BEACH:
Mobor Beach is a popular tourist destination in Goa. It is known for its natural beauty, including coconut palms. The beach is a great place to relax and enjoy the outdoors. You can also go swimming, sunbathing, and enjoy water sports. Mobor Beach is a great place to experience the local culture and way of life.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Mobor Beach – Bits Pilani is 66 KMS

QUERIM BEACH:
Querim Beach is a hidden gem located in the northern part of Goa. It is also known as Keri Beach and is one of the least explored beaches in the state. This is because it is relatively remote and not as well-known as other beaches in Goa. If you are looking for a peaceful and relaxing beach vacation, Querim Beach is the perfect place for you. The beach is surrounded by lush green hills and is a great place to swim, sunbathe, and relax. You can also go for a boat ride on the Terekhol River or visit the Terekhol Fort, which is located across the river.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Querim beach – Bits Pilani is 146 KMS
TRAVELING BEYOND GOA'S BORDERS
EXCURSION TO MURUDESHWAR AND GOKARNA FROM GOA (BEYOND THE BORDERS OF GOA)

Visit well-known sites of history and spirituality in Gokarna and Murudeshwar. See the huge and masterfully-crafted statue of Lord Shiva located in the town of Murudeshwar. Take in its grandeur as you witness the 123 feet statue against the backdrop of the great Arabian Sea. Afterwards, travel to the sacred temple of Lord Mahabaleshwar, an incarnation of Lord Shiva. Enjoy the spiritual atmosphere of this very famous temple. Visit Vinayaka Temple as well, where the deity of the same name presides. The temple has a fascinating history and legend, and it is definitely worth learning about. Hop back on your transfer and drive to the peaceful Om Beach. The beach got its name because of its similarities in shape to the iconic symbol in Hinduism. Aside from being a spiritual location, it is beloved by many for accommodating exciting water activities like surfing, skiing, and banana boat riding. Finally, pay a visit to the wonderful and exotic marine life living in the Karwar Fish Aquarium before concluding your tour and heading back to Goa.

Highlights:
- Take a full day tour from Goa and explore the spiritual sites of Murudeshwar and Gokarna
- Visit Murudeshwar and be amazed by the sight of the second largest statue of Lord Shiva
- Find peace and solace as you walk on the quiet and spiritual Om Beach in Gokarna
- Tap into your spiritual side as you visit local temples and learn about the fascinating legends surrounding them

What To Bring:
- Sunscreen
- Umbrella
- Camera
- Extra clothes

What To Wear:
- Walking shoes
- Sunglasses
- Hats
- Scarves

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Murudeshwar – Gokarna - Bits Pilani is 430 KMS
Dandeli is a city in Uttara Kannada District of Karnataka State, India. This place is situated in Western Ghat, India. The Dandeli is well known for its teak plantation and its dense forest. The Dandeli Wildlife Sanctuary, is also a home to animals including black panthers, monkeys and elephants, as well as many bird species. A temple stands at the entrance to the limestone Kavala Caves, known for their stalagmite formations. West of the caves, Anshi National Park encompasses the Kali Tiger Reserve.

Highlights:

Day 01
- Check-In get refreshed go to water sports [Boating, Jacuzzi Bath, Archery, Kayaking]. Return to property explore property. Have Dinner with Fire Camp.

Day 02
- Get up in morning have breakfast. Go for Jungle Trekking. Go for Site Seeing and Check-Out at 11:00 AM

Food
- Breakfast
- Lunch [Veg/Non Veg]
- Dinner [Veg/Non Veg]

Activities Included
- Boating
- Jacuzzi Bath
- Archery
- Kayaking

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Dandeli - Bits Pilani is 260 KMS
If you’re in Goa and looking to escape to a place where history, culture, and architectural brilliance come together, a tour to Mysore should be at the top of your list. Mysore, located in the Indian state of Karnataka, is a city that resonates with the regal charm of its past and the modern vibrancy of its present.

Historical Significance: Mysore has a rich historical heritage. It was the capital of the Wodeyar dynasty and is often referred to as the “City of Palaces.” The opulent Mysore Palace, a stunning blend of Indo-Saracenic architecture, is the city’s most iconic landmark and a testimony to its royal past.

A Walk Through Time: Mysore takes you on a journey through time with its quaint streets, bustling markets, and historical buildings. A stroll through the Devaraja Market, where you can shop for fragrant flowers, silk saris, and sandalwood products, is an immersive experience in itself. | Mysore's Heritage Rail: A visit to Mysore isn't complete without a ride on the Mysore Heritage Rail. The vintage locomotive offers a nostalgic journey back in time as it chugs along through the city’s scenic landscapes. The Cultural Scene: Mysore is renowned for its cultural heritage. It's the birthplace of the classical Indian dance form, Bharatanatyam. If you time your visit right, you might catch a traditional dance or music performance in one of the city’s cultural centers.

Local Cuisine: Mysore’s culinary scene is a delight for food enthusiasts. Don’t miss the Mysore Masala Dosa, a local specialty, along with a steaming cup of filter coffee. The city’s traditional thalis, sweets, and street food are also worth indulging in. | Connecting from Goa: You can travel to Mysore from Goa by various means, including trains, buses, or flights to nearby airports. The journey is part of the adventure, as you’ll witness the changing landscapes of Karnataka.

A trip from Goa to Mysore is not just a physical journey but a cultural and historical odyssey. It’s an exploration of India’s royal heritage, a chance to immerse yourself in the vibrant culture, and a delightful gastronomic experience. So, if you seek a change of scenery and a deeper connection with India’s past, Mysore awaits with open arms.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Mysore - Bits Pilani is 1300 KMS
MAHABALESHWAR

The Land Wrapped Up In Spirituality And Beauty

Occupying a respected place in the hearts of the Hindus, Mahabaleshwar is a famous pilgrimage of them. The holiness and the natural beauty of Mahabaleshwar offer a rewarding experience to visitors. Mahabaleshwar is a mesmerizing hill station located in the Satara district of Maharashtra. Mahabaleshwar is also famous for its juicy strawberries and mulberries. Several rulers established their supremacy in Mahabalipuram in the bygone era. Mahabaleshwar is a Sanskrit word, which means 'The God Of Great Power'. Offering captivating views of the Krishna and Koyana valleys, Mahabaleshwar is located at an elevation of 1372 m.

Mahabaleshwar is a land of beautiful temples. It got its name from the famous Mahabali temple located in old Mahabaleshwar, around four km from the the main city. The five sacred rivers namely Krishna, Venna, Koyana, Savitri and Gayatri originate from Mahabaleshwar only.

How To Reach Mahabaleshwar?

By Air: The nearest airport is the domestic airport at Pune (120 km). Mumbai International Airport is located 285 km from Mahabaleshwar.

By Rail: Pune is the main railway station which can be reached by taxi or bus from Mahabaleshwar.

By Road: Mahabaleshwar is well connected with Mumbai and Pune by road.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Mahabaleshwar - Bits Pilani is 830 KMS
The Enchanting Cascade. Created by the Sharavathi river falling from a height of 830 feet, the Jog Falls is the second-highest plunge waterfall in India. Also known as the Gerusoppe Falls and Jogada Gundi. Siganduru village is surrounded on three sides by back waters of the Linganamakki Dam formed on the Sharavathi River. The place is well-known for the Sigandur Chowdeshwari Temple.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Jog Falls - Bits Pilani is 480 KMS

The mighty Dudhsagar falls has managed to grab a position in the ten highest waterfalls in Asia cascading from a height of 1017ft. As the name suggests, the “sea of milk” is in reference to the white spray created while water gushes down to the natural pool of tranquil water created at the base of the falls.

According to legendary tale, a bathing princess poured the milk in a cascade to preserve her modesty from a passerby. You will be enthralled to see the lush green forest known as Bhagwan Mahavir Wildlife Sanctuary which is also a home to different species of animals and birds. The bumpy jeep safari to waterfall and time you would spend at the waterfall is going to leave you rejuvenated.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Dudhsagar - Bits Pilani is 135 KMS
VENGURLA

Vengurla is on the western coast of India in the Sindhudurg district of Maharashtra. The place is known for its crystal-clear water and green foliage of coconut, cashew and mango trees. Located just to the north of Goa, the place has served as a natural port since historic times.

Districts/ Region: Sindhudurg district, Maharashtra, India. History: Vengurla is a taluka of the Sindhudurg district in the south Konkan region of Maharashtra. The place is known for its clean and sandy beaches and hilly surroundings. It was one of the busiest ports and a trade centre during the reign of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. Geography: Vengurla is a coastal place located in South Konkan in between the hills of Dabholi and Mochemad. It has green topped Sahyadri mountains on one side and the blue Arabian Sea on the other. It is located 38 KM to the southwest of Sindhudurg city, 170 KM away from Kolhapur and 477 KM away from Mumbai. The place is well accessible by road.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Vengurla - Bits Pilani is 178 KMS

YELLAPUR

Yellapur is a beautiful town located in the Uttara Kannada district of Karnataka, known for its natural beauty, historic temples, and adventure sports. The town is situated amidst the lush Western Ghats and offers stunning views of the surrounding mountains, valleys, and forests. Visitors to Yellapur can indulge in a variety of activities, including trekking, rock climbing, rappelling, and river rafting, making it a great destination for adventure enthusiasts. One of the major attractions of Yellapur is its waterfalls. The town is home to several stunning waterfalls, including Magod Falls, Sathodi Falls, and Shivganga Falls. These waterfalls are surrounded by lush green forests and offer a picturesque setting for nature lovers and photography enthusiasts. Visitors can also indulge in activities like trekking and camping near these waterfalls.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Yellapur - Bits Pilani is 360 KMS
KUDREMUKH

Kudremukh is the heaven in South India blessed with lush green meadows everywhere the charismatic effect of the place remains forever insight. It surprises everyone with its beauty and also the third highest peak in Karnataka makes it challenging at the same time. Plan your trip at Gokarna beach easily and conveniently with our online booking service. Experience the best of both worlds with our Gokarna beach trekking and camping packages, designed to provide a perfect blend of adventure and relaxation. An ideal place if you love nature and can’t resist being in the wild. Embark on a thrilling Kudremukh trek from Chikmagalur with our convenient and customizable trekking packages. In Kannada, ’Kudre’ means Horse and ‘Mukha’ means Face and literally Kudremukh means Horse-face and gets its name because of a specific view of the mountain which almost resembles a horse’s face. It is a trek of moderate difficulty, a weekend is all you need to hike this mountain.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Kudremukh - Bits Pilani is 750 KMS

HAMPI

Hampi, located in the southern Indian state of Karnataka, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site that beckons travelers from across the globe. Steeped in history, this ancient city takes you on a captivating journey through time and the enchanting remnants of a bygone era. Hampi was once the prosperous capital of the Vijayanagara Empire, one of the greatest Hindu empires in Indian history. Its heyday, which spanned from the 14th to the 16th century, saw the city adorned with magnificent temples, monuments, and palaces. Today, these impressive architectural marvels stand as a testament to the grandeur of the Vijayanagara dynasty.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Hampi - Bits Pilani is 711 KMS
BONDLA WILDLIFE SANCTUARY

Tucked away in the lush greenery of Goa, the Bondla Wildlife Sanctuary stands as a testament to the state's rich biodiversity and natural beauty. It's a captivating destination for nature enthusiasts, wildlife lovers, and anyone seeking a tranquil escape from the bustling beach scenes that Goa is typically known for. Bondla Wildlife Sanctuary is a hidden gem in Goa, offering a peaceful and immersive experience in nature. Whether you're a wildlife enthusiast, a nature lover, or just seeking a break from the beach and nightlife, Bondla is a destination that will leave you with lasting memories of Goa's natural beauty and biodiversity.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Bondla Wildlife Sanctuary - Bits Pilani is 95 KMS

NERSA HILL

A lesser known hill station, Nersa is in the forest range of Londa in the Western Ghats in Belgaum district, of Karnataka State. It shares its boundary with Goa state. A part of the proposed Bhimgarh Sanctuary, it covers a rich and agricultural area. Nersa has thick trees abound. Nandi, Mathi, Kindal Rosewood, Harda, Jamba found here. The terrain varies from undulating countryside to steep rocky. The forests in Nersa has around 174 varieties of medicinal plants.

Nestled in the thick forests of Mahadaiy valley, it is a perfect holiday destination for a wildlife enthusiast and a bird lover. Nersa, also offers lots of thrilling experience. The hills, rocks and valleys provide a lot of adventure tourism.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Nersa Hill - Bits Pilani is 215 KMS
MUDUMALAI NATIONAL PARK

Mudumalai National Park is one of the most critical ecological systems in the country, with Bandipur National Park and Nagarhole National Park to the north and the Wayand wildlife sanctuary to the south. In between them they house more than 500 species of animals, birds, reptiles and even more species of insects. Famous for its tiger population, the National park was recently declared a Tiger Reserve with a population of about 103 tigers. Needless to say the place is breathtaking and captivating for anyone who appreciates nature. As you ride through the forests you are bound to see elephants roaming freely in the wilderness and different types of deer for starters. As you move deeper into the jungle, if luck favors you, you will see many endangered species of birds and animals. High on the list of endangered birds are the vultures.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Mudumalai National Park - Bits Pilani is 1530 KMS

OOTY

Nestled in the Nilgiri Hills of Tamil Nadu, Ooty, officially known as Udagamandalam, is a charming hill station that has enchanted travelers for generations. With its salubrious climate, lush green landscapes, and a host of natural and cultural attractions, Ooty is rightfully known as the “Queen of Hill Stations.” Ooty is a destination where the serenity of nature, the aroma of tea gardens, and the warmth of the local culture come together. It’s an idyllic retreat for those seeking respite from the heat and chaos of urban life, and it promises a memorable experience in the lap of the Western Ghats.

Note: The overall distance from the Bits Pilani – Ooty - Bits Pilani is 1600 KMS
You can choose your preferred destination for the trip outside Goa, regardless of your current location in the state. If any of these trips pique your interest, please don’t hesitate to contact us at info@ghaconferences.com.